Troup County's 2025 Comprehensive Plan Public Meeting Schedule

Troup County, Ga. April 21, 2025 – Troup County's Community Development Office is scheduled to host several opportunities across the County in May and June to provide citizens with an opportunity to provide input for the 2025 Troup County Comprehensive Plan Update. The public is invited to attend these meetings, as community voices truly matter in planning for the future of the County, including growth and development, transportation, housing, economic development, parks and natural resources, and land use and infrastructure.

Each meeting will cover the same topics, so we invite Troup County citizens to choose one or more meetings that are most convenient for you. The Community Development Office will also offer an engaging, virtual Teams meeting online for those who prefer to join remotely.
