Troup County Introduces New Open Records Portal

Troup County, Ga. August 25, 2021 – At their meeting held on Tuesday, August 17th, the Troup County Board of Commissioners approved a resolution naming an Open Records Officer, County Clerk Valerie West, and an Alternate Records Officer, Deputy Clerk Caroline Johnson, to act in the Open Records Officer’s absence.

For the convenience of the public, Troup County will implement an electronic portal for the submission, processing, and fulfilling of written Open Records Requests by the Open Records Officer/Alternate Open Records Officer. Troup County’s new Open Records Portal, GovQA, is scheduled to go live and open to the public on Thursday, August 26, 2021. The link to the portal will be provided on the Troup County, Georgia website: <https://www.troupcountyga.gov/>.
